

ESCAPE JOB.

INDING BY

country. for of England Daily Ex- of the where She is now piles outside... She is now piles outside... She is now piles outside...

MEMORY FEATS OF ASYLUM PATIENTS.

A MAN WHO KNOWS EVERY ROAD IN ENGLAND.

Ability and ingenuity are sometimes to be found in strange places. Who, for instance, would think of looking for either of these two qualities in a lunatic asylum? Yet it is recorded that an imbecile at Easter can recite any parish in the country, and can quote hymns and state the right lesson for any Sunday in the year.

NO NOTES OF UNDER 10s. FOR THE PRESENT.

CURRENCY AND BORROWING.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer, speaking in the House of Commons, made an important announcement on the action he proposes to take on the final report of the Committee on Currency.

AN ADVENTUROUS ESCAPE FROM THE TURKS.

BRADFORD OFFICER'S STORY OF PERILS PASSED.

A lively story of his adventurous escape, with three other British officers from Turkish captivity, was related in a lecture to the Royal Geographical Society, last night, by Captain E. H. Keeling, a son of the late headmaster of the Bradford Grammar School.

THE WORST-PAVED ROAD IN LEEDS.

WHAT THE MOTORISTS THINK.

The manager of a motor garage in Leeds, to-day, held counsel with his drivers to ascertain for "The Yorkshire Evening Post" which is the worst street in Leeds so far as the use of the road is concerned.

PICTURE OF HEAD OF CHRIST.

PAINTED UPSIDE DOWN UNDER AN IMPULSE.

The latest manifestation of spirit power recorded by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle is the drawing, by a woman who is and normally to have no artistic gifts, of what he describes as a "most marvellous" head of Christ.

QUEENSLAND GOVERNMENT

£6 PER CENT. INSCRIBED STOCK, 1930-1940.

Interest payable half-yearly at the Bank of England on the 1st Feb. and the 1st Aug. Issue of £2,000,000 Stock. The first dividend, being six months' interest will be payable on the 1st Aug., 1920.

ONS.

ACT WITH

White Paper, disabled and here deceased vision is also disabled men grants to a work of a of his disad- some find, a

ANOTHER MAN'S SPIRIT.

Addressing our representative, he began at the crown of the head, and proceeded to give the scientific name of every bone in the body. This he followed up by giving the names of all the internal organs and describing the functions of each.

LEEDS UNIVERSITY SONG.

PROFESSOR BARKER'S VERSION FOR 1919.

Professor Alfred Fowler Barker, of the Leeds University, has written and composed a University song, for use on Degree Days and such like ceremonial occasions.

OVER-COURT.

On the third day of the march, leaving Karamuni, the party sighted the Black Sea, and several boats of about three tons were observed sailing close in shore.

"SUSPENSE IS KILLING ME."

OFFICER'S SUICIDE AT BRADFORD AFTER WORRY - TER FAX.

The circumstances in which Captain G. W. Rodworth (43), Northumberland Fusiliers, shot himself in a bedroom at his residence, in Melbourne Place, Little Horton, Bradford, on Saturday, were investigated by the Bradford Coroner (Mr. J. G. Hutchinson), to-day.

ALLEGED THEFT AT BARNBOW.

Witness W. T. Newshaw, manager of Bunder, Barnbow, has been charged with the theft of a silver watch from the Bunder, Barnbow, on the 1st inst.