FILMING & PHOTOSHOOT LOCATIONS

Arnos Vale Cemetery is a filming-friendly 45-acre Victorian garden cemetery with a vast array of locations available for filming - from the traditional graveyard to overgrown graves brimming with wildlife, as well as a café to a gift shop, crypt to an outdoor wooded venue, and two Victorian chapels - The Anglican Chapel and the Spielman Centre, the spaces of which can be repurposed for your production.

Based in the heart of Bristol, on a main artery - the A4, our site has excellent access and is open 7 days a week. We are run by the Arnos Vale Cemetery Trust, and can close the site to give a production the space, security and secrecy needed.

FILMING & PHOTOSHOOT LOCATIONS

What location managers have said about filming at Arnos Vale Cemetery:

"I have filmed at Arnos Vale now on several occasions and it has always been a very positive experience from start to finish. The site provides a very unique location with several options for filming. The staff are hugely helpful and accommodating and the site can handle a full production with technical vehicles and spaces to help facilitate a shoot day. I would strongly recommend Arnos Vale for a filming location."

Andy Moore

"Arnos Vale is a great location to film at. I have filmed for Sherlock, Alex Rider, Casualty and other productions at the site. Stunning backdrop for the action, and the team there are very helpful. Great coffee in the cafe too! Looking forward to returning again soon."

Jake Sainsbury

"Filming at Arnos Vale Cemetery for 'The Seven Dials' for Netflix was an absolute pleasure. The site provided an extraordinary backdrop, full of atmosphere and character, that perfectly complemented our scenes. The team at Arnos Vale are not only supportive, professional, and accommodating throughout, but also delightfully warm and friendly, and make the whole process smooth and enjoyable. We would wholeheartedly recommend Arnos Vale as a filming location – it's a truly unique setting with a team who go above and beyond to help bring creative visions to life. I have filmed at Arnos on a few different productions and it always provides a bit of a break in a crazy schedule as the team share the logistical burden with us!"
